

Aunt Annie's here!

Level 2 – Where am I?

Hi! It's me, Annie!

Where am I? If you listen carefully, you'll find five clues in this podcast.

I'm in a very big city. Some people call it the Big Apple. Everyone speaks English here because the city is in the United States. Ah, that's your first clue.

There is so much to see here. My first stop this morning is a very famous building called the Empire State Building. Pssst, that's your second clue!

Then I'm going to walk across the Brooklyn Bridge. It will take about an hour, mostly because I have to stop and take lots of pictures along the way. That's your third clue.

Here's your fourth clue: This afternoon I'm going to take a ride on the ferry to see a famous statue. It's called the Statue of Liberty.

This evening I'm going to visit Times Square. It's beautiful at night because there are so many lights. I can't wait to see it. That's your fifth and last clue.

There is so much to do in this city! But tomorrow is another day... Do you know where I am?

Here are the five clues again:

1. It's a city in the United States. Some people call it the Big Apple.
2. There is a famous building called the Empire State Building.
3. You can walk across the Brooklyn Bridge.
4. You can take the ferry to see the Statue of Liberty.
5. Times Square is beautiful at night.

Where am I?

That's right, I'm in New York! Well done!

Bye for now!

You can listen to more podcasts at www.auntannie.ch/podcasts.

BTW: Annie can visit you in your classroom. For more information go to www.auntannie.ch.